

Standing Rules
PRESBYTERY OF NEW JERSEY
Presbyterian Church in America

PREFACE

1. The Presbytery of New Jersey of the Presbyterian Church in America, Inc., also known as and hereinafter referred to as the New Jersey Presbytery (or simply, the Presbytery), shall be governed by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in America. The Constitution is defined in the Preface to the Book of Church Order of the Presbyterian Church in America, Article III.
2. The sole functions of the Church, as a kingdom and government distinct from the civil commonwealth, are to proclaim, to administer, and to enforce the law of Christ revealed in the Scriptures. (BCO 3-3)
3. The New Jersey Presbytery consists of all the teaching elders and churches of the Presbyterian Church in America within its bounds as they have been accepted by the Presbytery.
4. Qualifications for and rights and limitations of membership in the New Jersey Presbytery shall be as defined in the Book of Church Order of the Presbyterian Church in America.
5. Should the Presbytery be dissolved and cease to exist, all assets shall be divided among its member churches. The formula to calculate the distribution of assets shall be proportional in accordance with each church's communicant membership. Should no member churches exist, the assets will revert to the Presbyterian Church in America, Inc. No assets shall be distributed under this provision to individuals.

ARTICLE I — MEETINGS

A. Stated Meetings

Four stated meetings shall be held each year to convene at 9:00 AM on the third Saturday of March, May, September and November.

B. Adjourned Meetings

Adjourned meetings may be held as determined necessary by Presbytery for continuing the business of stated meetings.

C. Called Meetings

Called meetings may be held as determined necessary, but are not encouraged. All requests for called meetings shall be made in writing to the stated clerk in accordance with the provisions of BCO 13-10.

D. Quorum

The quorum for meetings of Presbytery shall be in accordance with BCO 13-4.

E. Place of Meeting

1. The place of each stated and adjourned meeting shall be determined at the previous stated meeting or adjourned meeting, upon invitation from a church or institution. If no invitation is received, the moderator and stated clerk shall be responsible for arranging a place of meeting.
2. The place of each called meeting shall be determined by the moderator and stated clerk.

3. Lunch will normally be docketed from 12:30 pm to 1:30 pm.

F. Docket

1. A proposed docket for each meeting of Presbytery shall be prepared and distributed in accord with standing rule Article II.C.2.c.
2. Requests for special speakers or presentations from outside Presbytery shall be referred to the appropriate permanent committee and approved by that committee before being admitted to the docket.
3. The docket for each meeting shall be adopted by a majority vote of the Presbytery and may be amended at any time during the meeting by a majority vote of Presbytery.
4. The docket for each stated meeting shall include an Order set for 11:45 a.m. which shall provide a period of fifteen minutes for prayer by and for the members, and fifteen minutes for members of Presbytery to share some of the things God is doing through their ministries.

G. Worship

1. The meetings of presbytery shall provide adequate time for the members to corporately engage in worship, prayer, study of the Word of God, and fellowship.
2. The stated meetings of presbytery shall be opened with a worship service, including a sermon to be arranged by the moderator in conjunction with the host church/institution. The worship hour will normally begin at 9:00 am and end at 9:45 am. When a second sermon is needed by the Examinations Committee, it may be docketed immediately after lunch.
3. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be administered at the September stated meeting as part of the opening worship, by the retiring moderator and/or persons delegated by the retiring moderator or stated clerk.

H. Attendance

1. Every teaching elder who is a member of Presbytery is expected to attend, and every session of Presbytery is expected to be represented at the meeting of Presbytery by a ruling elder in accordance with BCO 13-1 and 13-2. Members of Presbytery are expected to arrive on time at meetings of Presbytery and to attend all parts of the meetings unless specifically excused by Presbytery.
2. When providentially hindered from attending a meeting of Presbytery, members are expected to report the reason for non-attendance to Presbytery, and request to be excused by Presbytery. The following reasons shall automatically qualify for an excuse: death in family; personal illness; major crisis within the family or congregation requiring the pastor's or ruling elder's immediate attention; vacation; General Assembly committee meetings; and military duties. Any other excuse will require Presbytery's approval after a recommendation by the Membership and Assistance Committee.
3. Teaching elders who are honorably retired, declared infirm, or permitted to labor outside the bounds of Presbytery, such as foreign missionaries, are exempt from attendance requirements. Such individuals shall be expected to submit brief written reports to Presbytery at each November meeting.

4. Churches without sessions: Should a previously organized church find itself without a Session, per BCO 12-1, it shall notify Presbytery of such development. Upon receiving notification, the Presbytery shall proceed to establish a temporary system of government for the church in one of the ways described in BCO 5-3.

I. Adjournment Time

The docketed time for adjournment shall ordinarily be 3:00 p.m. The Presbytery may extend its time of meeting as long as it chooses, providing it has a quorum.

J. Meeting by Teleconference or Videoconference

Called meetings of Presbytery, and Presbytery commissions or committees may conduct meetings by teleconference or videoconference with the following restrictions and provisions.

1. The meeting shall not include the business of: (a) the gathering of evidence; (b) deliberation of guilt or innocence; (c) deliberation of a censure; or (d) an examination for ordination or licensure.
2. The technology of the conference shall ensure that all persons participating be able to hear each other or to see and hear each other (if videoconference) simultaneously in order to preserve the deliberative nature of the meeting.
3. The meeting shall be conducted by a meeting moderator. This will normally be the moderator of Presbytery, if a meeting of the Presbytery, or the chairman or convener if a commission or committee.
4. Participants in such a meeting shall seek the floor by announcing his name (and church, if requested by the meeting moderator). The meeting moderator shall recognize the speaker by name. Participants shall take care to avoid unnecessary noises or distractions, and speaking out of turn.
